Constitution after coup: Brazil – a Rule of Law Forum webinar

19 June 2025, 1300-1400 BST

Book online →

A webinar presented by the IBA Rule of Law Forum, supported by the IBA North American Regional Forum, the IBA Litigation Committee, the IBA Latin American Regional Forum and the IBA Judges Forum.

This series will examine the impact of coups and other constitutional crises on the rule of law through three recent case studies: Brazil, South Korea and the United States. Each webinar will examine:

- Anti-constitutional measures
- Remedies taken through legislature/courts and public recourse
- Accountability after the fact and long-term impact forecasts

Legal scholars and practitioners around the world are under attack and strategising the restoration of the rule of law, both domestically and internationally. Through the case studies presented, the series seeks to illuminate 'what works' in different societies battling authoritarian measures and distil lessons learned.

This session will focus on Brazil.

Speakers:

- Carlos Roberto Siqueira Castro, Siqueira Castro, São Paulo
- Laura Trajber Waisbich, Deputy Director of Programs, Igarape Institute, Rio de Janeiro
- Oscar Vilhena Vieira, Director, FGV São Paulo Law School, São Paulo

This webinar is free for everyone to attend. Places are limited, register now to secure your place.

Certificates of attendance for each session will be provided, automatically, to all delegates who have registered in advance and attended the live broadcast for a minimum of 30 minutes based on verified sign-in and sign-out times. Certificates can only be issued to the name provided at the time of registration.

If you have any queries relating to your Certificate of Attendance, please email webinars@int-bar.org.
