

Prof. (Dr.) Avinash Dadhich Honored with “Excellence in Innovation in Legal Education Award”

New Delhi, May 10, 2025 — Prof. (Dr.) Avinash Dadhich, Founding Director of the School of Law at Dhirubhai Ambani University, Gandhinagar, Gujarat, has been conferred the prestigious "Excellence in Innovation in Legal Education Award" at the International Legal Conference 2025.

The award was presented by the Hon'ble Mr. Justice Manmohan, Judge of the Supreme Court of India, in the esteemed presence of Dr. Anju Rathi Rana, Law Secretary, Government of India. The event was organized in New Delhi by the Ministry of Commerce & Industry and the Ministry of Law & Justice, in collaboration with the Indian National Association of Legal Professionals and the Services Export Promotion Council, India.

Prof. (Dr.) Dadhich was recognized for his pioneering work in shaping a future-forward, interdisciplinary, and industry-aligned legal education model that responds to the evolving needs of an AI-driven legal ecosystem.

Expressing his gratitude, Prof. (Dr.) Dadhich said, “This honor is a tribute to the collective efforts of my teachers, students, colleagues, family, and friends, whose unwavering support and collaboration have made this journey possible.”

The recognition highlights Dr. Dadhich's continued commitment to fostering innovation and excellence in legal education across India.